Press Release

The Holland Township Historic Preservation Commission has just published "The Early Settlers of Holland Township, NJ" which is mainly comprised of the writings of 'Squire Jesse Sinclair. His published articles (mainly in the Milford Leader newspaper in the 1880s & 1890s) were compiled with commentary by Robert H. Peabody, a local resident. These writings are part history, part genealogy, and a look at 18th & 19th century culture, education, and religion. This book will give you an appreciation of rural farm life, its humor, its facts of life, its serious philosophy & religion as guides to the good life, and the importance of neighbors and community.

Funding for this book has been made possible in part by the Hunterdon County Board of Chosen Freeholders, through funds administered by the Hunterdon County Cultural and Heritage Commission. It is available at the Holland Township Municipal Building Clerk's Office, on Lulu.com, and Amazon.com.
